

Mr. DODD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to be added as a cosponsor to the amendment of the distinguished Senator.

Mr. LUGAR. I will be delighted.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. DODD. Mr. President, I commend my colleague from Indiana and thank him and our former colleague, Senator Nunn, whom he has mentioned on several occasions during his remarks this evening. These two individuals have made a significant contribution to the improved environment in which the world finds itself today, with all of its problems. Had it not been for the efforts of Senator Nunn and Senator LUGAR over the years, we would not find ourselves in the position we are today to significantly reduce the kinds of threats the Senator from Indiana just highlighted in his remarks.

I am confident this amendment will be overwhelmingly supported. It should be. My cosponsorship is not a gratuitous act, but I want to be identified with the substance of his remarks and, more importantly, the substance of this amendment.

We had some testimony this morning, in fact, before the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations in talking about Iraq. These are very fine hearings that the chairman of the committee, Senator BIDEN, and Senator LUGAR have cosponsored to give us a wonderful opportunity to consider what options we have with regard to Iraq.

I do not want to dwell on that except to point out that Ambassador Butler this morning, when talking about various options and what we ought to consider and specifically talking about the issue of containment and whether we have exhausted the containment approach, questioned himself as to whether we had. But he said one thing we need to do, if anything at all, is to work more closely with Russia because they could play a very important role.

What the Senator from Indiana is doing, not only with this amendment in the short term, is creating at least the possibility of that cooperation which may be essential in the months and years ahead.

It is a staggering statistic. I do not know if my colleagues were listening carefully. Over the next 6 years, I presume working 5 or 6 days a week, 10- or 12-hour days—that is how long it will take to eliminate this incredible risk. The idea that we would be prohibited from doing so because we deny the President waiver authority because of an existing parliamentary situation or treaties that require some prior action I think would be a great missed opportunity.

I commend the Senator from Indiana immensely for his efforts in this regard, and I thank Senator Nunn as well for his previous work here and his continuing work. I wish to associate myself in this effort. This may be one of the most important things we will do in this bill, and I commend the Senator for offering the amendment.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Indiana.

Mr. LUGAR. Mr. President, I thank the distinguished Senator from Connecticut for his cosponsorship.

Cosponsoring this amendment are the chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, Mr. BIDEN; Mr. DOMENICI; Mr. HAGEL; Mr. GRAHAM; Mr. LEVIN, chairman of the Armed Services Committee; Mr. DODD; and I am pleased to add my colleague from Arizona, Mr. MCCAIN.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The Senator from Hawaii.

Mr. INOUE. We are prepared to accept this amendment and take it to conference.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there further debate on the amendment?

If not, the question is on agreeing to amendment No. 4435.

The amendment (No. 4435) was agreed to.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Arizona.

AMENDMENT NO. 4443

Mr. MCCAIN. Mr. President, I have a couple of amendments the managers have accepted, and I have another amendment that would be the subject of debate. I send those two amendments that I think are agreed to, to the desk at this time and ask for their immediate consideration, either separately or en bloc. The first amendment I would request be called up would be amendment No. 4443.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

The Senator from Arizona [Mr. MCCAIN] proposes an amendment numbered 4443.

The amendment is as follows:

(Purpose: To remove the waiting period in the limitation on use of funds for conversion of the 939th Combat Search and Rescue Wing)

Beginning on page 221, line 24, strike “60 days after”.

Mr. MCCAIN. Mr. President, the first amendment would remove the reporting period required for the positioning of UH-60s and would allow that the report be submitted at any time. It is largely technical in nature.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there further debate on the amendment?

If not, the question is on agreeing to amendment No. 4443.

The amendment (No. 4443) was agreed to.

NOTICE

Incomplete record of Senate proceedings. Except for concluding business which follows, today's Senate proceedings will be continued in the next issue of the Record.

ORDERS FOR THURSDAY, AUGUST 1, 2002

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it stand adjourned until 9:30 a.m. tomorrow, August 1; that on Thursday, following the prayer and the pledge, the Journal of proceedings be approved to date; that the time for the two leaders be reserved for their use later in the day, and that the Senate then resume consideration of the conference report to accompany H.R. 3009, the Andean Trade Act, with the time until 10:30 a.m. equally divided and controlled between the proponents and opponents, with Senator BAUCUS or Senator GRASSLEY controlling the proponents' time and Senator DORGAN or his designee controlling the time in opposition; that at 10:30 a.m., without further intervening action or debate, the Senate proceed to vote on the motion to invoke cloture on the conference report.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 9:30 A.M. TOMORROW

Mr. REID. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 8:27 p.m., adjourned until Thursday, August 1, 2002, at 9:30 a.m.
